The Naia Resort and Spa in Belize has added a new signature beach house, Caribbean Journal has learned.

The five-bedroom, three-story “Solvei” gets its name from the Danish word for the “path of the sun.”

The property, which has 360-degree views of the Caribbean Sea and mountain jungles, comes with its own full-time concierge, with the option of chef and other transport choices.

The 58-foot-by-16-foot pool anchors a 5,260-square-foot deck.

That's along with amenities like a game room with billiards and table tennis, an elevator and an Elan sound system.

Naia is also home to a fitness center, a spa and a yoga studio.
